

Welcome from the IAJGS -- the International Association of Jewish Genealogical Societies.

The goal of the IAJGS International Jewish Cemetery Project is documentation of every Jewish burial site in the world. All available information is posted. Information is supplied by and managed by volunteers. (See JewishGen's JOWBR for individual burials.)

If you have information about to share about a burial site, please contact project coordinator

Every Jewish cemetery or burial site listed here by town or city, country, and geographic region is based on current locality designation. Some listings include links to other websites with additional information such as burial lists or a name to contact by email or snail-mail. Not every Jewish burial site has been identified. If you know of others not included in these pages or have additional information to share, please complete the Burial Site Survey found in the "Instructions and Information" section.

- For an individual burial, access the Jewishgen JOWBR Worldwide Burial Registry database at
- For a specific burial site, click on the region at the top of each page to reach to an index of countries
- To donate burial listing information JOWBR .
- To donate cemetery information, click on the "Please Read First" menu item (above, top of page),
- To donate a general photo of a cemetery or PhotosView.chobn (for a specific tombstone), please see

The "Instructions and Information" section should be read carefully when you first access this project. This section contains much information useful to those researching Jewish burials. Included are many informative pages and "How To" references for Hebrew and Yiddish tombstone translation, Jewish burial customs, Jewish funeral customs, Kaddish, and cemetery and funeral home links. Forms and procedures for donating information about burial sites and suggestions for documenting a burial site are included in ""Instructional Information."

Please access this page first

Queries about information clearly accessible by searching the International Jewish Cemetery Project site as well requests for individual burial information will not receive a response from the project team.

Please note: IAJGS is unable to do the following on your behalf:

- Go to any cemetery and take pictures of tombstones.
- Make inquiries at a cemetery office about any burials.
- Look up any documentation about any deceased individual or burial.
- Provide anyone with any genealogical information about any of the deceased.

All information that has been donated is posted throughout the website. We have no additional information.

IAJGS thanks the following individuals for their support of the International Jewish Cemetery Project:

Ellen Sadove Renck -- Project Coordinator

Kitty Munson Cooper -- HTML Coordinator (webmaster)

Peter Strauss - Germany Project Leader

David M.R. Shulman-- Geographic Advisor, British Isles and Asia, Africa & Pacific Editor

Too many volunteers to mention have helped in the past, but special mention for help in converting to the new site goes to Evamaria Brockhoff MA, Jason Hallgarten, Joachim Mugdan, Fritz Neubauer, Eva Radding, H Peter Sinclair, and Jeri Steele.
