Los Angeles Family History Library Home Page:

https://www.familysearch.org/learn/wiki/en/Los_Angeles_Family_History_Library

Home page, contact information, directions, hours of operation, to view upcoming free classes, to order microfilms and microfiche, links to other internet web pages for research

Los Angeles Family History Library alternate website:

<http://www.lafhl.org/index.htm>

Has basically the same information but some find it easier to navigate.

Link to Mormon Church genealogical database:

Searchable by name, by date, by location, by database

Search the Library Catalogue:

Index of Resources (microfilms, books, microfiche)

<https://www.familysearch.org/>

Link to Microfilm and Microfiche Search by Numbers

<http://www.lafhl.org/microsearch.html>

To find out if a specific microfilm or microfiche is in our library.

Link to Index of Permanent Collection of Jewish Genealogical Society of Los Angeles:

<http://jgsla.org/research/library-lafhl>

These books are kept on the shelves on the North Wall of the Library.

An updated version of the index is in a notebook located on top of the shelves.

Link to microfilms located at the LAFHL of Jewish Interest:

<http://jgsla.org/research/microfilms-at-lafhl>

These microfilms are kept in the microfilm room and are available for research

An updated version of the index is in a notebook located on one shelf of the collection.

Link to Index of genealogical journals that are shelved with the JGSLA collection:

<http://jgsla.org/research/journals-lafhl>

The journals are shelved on the east side of the collection

Jewish Records at the Family History Library:
